c) Seniors' Week - June 2 - 8, 2013

The Committee discussed activities planned for Seniors' Week including the Roundhouse Health Fair on Tuesday, June 4, 2013. The Committee also reviewed the brochure with general information on the Seniors Advisory Committee, that will be made available during Seniors' Week. The Staff Liaison agreed to coordinate printing of the brochure and a sign, and Eddy Elmer agreed to coordinate volunteers to attend the Health Fair table.

MOVED by Sharon Fenton
SECONDED by Eva Wadolna

THAT the Seniors Advisory Committee request Mayor Robertson to proclaim June 2 to 8, 2013, as Seniors' Week in Vancouver, to read as follows:

WHEREAS:

1. BC Seniors' Week is celebrated on June 2 - 8, 2013.
2. Seniors are our parents, our grandparents, our uncles and aunts, our siblings, our spouses and partners, our teachers, our volunteers, our mentors, our neighbours, our friends, and our coworkers.
3. Seniors in Vancouver continue to play an important role in the daily lives of all citizens.
4. The work and contributions of seniors are part of the legacy to Vancouver.
5. BC Seniors' Week focuses on celebrating and recognizing the valuable contributions made by seniors to the betterment of our communities, families, and workplaces.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Gregor Robertson, Mayor of Vancouver, do hereby proclaim June 2 - 8, 2013, as Seniors' Week in Vancouver and urge my fellow citizens to recognize the vital role played by seniors in our community.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

The Chair agreed to liaise with the Mayor's Office on logistics for receiving the proclamation at Council on May 28, 2013, and to arrange for a Councillor to read the proclamation at the Health Fair.

d) Pearson Dogwood proposal

Sharon Fenton distributed “Report on Dogwood Pearson Redevelopment at 59th and Cambie - March 2013”, and an excerpt from page 9 of “Design Brief - Pearson Dogwood Redevelopment Charrette” (on file).
